

Gold top-up is happening on 25th February at Live Theatre on Newcastle's Quayside. Lunch is provided. The course costs £85. To book places go to http://www.artsaward.org.uk/course_search/?script=profile_search

Public Moderation at the Sage Gateshead 25th March between 9-5pm. Do you have a small number of young people to be moderated (between 6-10)? Are you struggling to have the minimum number of young people needed for moderation? Do you want your group to have the opportunity to mix with other Arts Award participants? Then public moderation could be for you. Go to

<http://www.artsaward.org.uk/site/?id=1636&action=preview&backTo=index> or email northeast@artsaward.org.uk for more information

Calling all teachers... there will be 2 twilight Arts Award surgeries specifically for teachers. There will be informal presentations from teachers who have run, or are in the process of running the Arts Award in their school. You will be able to get advice on funding, how to fit the Arts Award into your timetable and examples of good practice.

These will be happening on:

- ▶ 23rd February 2009 4.30pm-6.30pm at Darlington Arts Centre
- ▶ 4th March 2009 4.30pm-6.30pm at Arts Council England North East offices situated behind Newcastle Central Station

Refreshments will be served; places are free but limited

To book a place or for directions email northeast@artsaward.org.uk

Moderation Surgery on 23rd February 10am-1pm for all the questions you ever had about an Arts Award moderation from the people who do it.

Refreshments served. To book a place email northeast@artsaward.org.uk