

National Youth Arts Conference

Following the delivery of a busy programme of regional youth arts conferences across the country ENYAN looks forward to advocating nationally on behalf of the sector. This national conference will provide creative, engaging and timely networking opportunities and will be of value to anyone working with, or for, young people in the creative industries and youth services.

- Thursday 7 May, City Hall, London
- Tuesday 2 June, The Customs House, Tyne & Wear

The title and programme for the event will be announced shortly but in the mean time do make sure the date is in your diary so you don't miss out and email enyan@artswork.org.uk to express your interest in attending stating you would like to attend.

ENYAN is the national membership and advocating body for the youth arts sector in England. The network is delivered by Artswork, the national youth arts development agency and funded by Arts Council South East, The Paul Hamlyn Foundation and Artswork.

Membership is free so why not sign up today at www.enyan.co.uk to be kept up to date with youth arts news and developments.
