

The Drawing Room @ the Northern Gallery for Contemporary Art

The Drawing Room at the Northern Gallery for Contemporary Art is a free new activity space for schools and family groups. The room is a bright and welcoming space for anyone who would like to get creative and we have a variety of arts materials available for you to use.

The Drawing Room is an ideal base for groups visiting the NGCA and can be used for gallery tours, making activities, discussions and exhibitions of pupils work. To date we have exhibited work made by pupils from Benedict Biscop Primary and Houghton Kepier Secondary Schools and hosted preview events for the pupils and their families.

Based on the top floor of the City Library and Arts Centre on Fawcett Street in Sunderland, The Drawing Room is available throughout the gallery's opening hours listed below.

Opening times:

Monday and Wednesday late opening 9.30 – 7.30

Tuesday, Thursday, Friday 9.30 – 5.00

Saturday 9.30 – 4.00

The space is ideal for approx 15 children but bigger groups can also visit the gallery can split a larger group between The Drawing Room and our other spaces. To discuss your visit please contact Amanda Gould, Arts Education and Outreach Officer on 0191 5618452 or e-mail amanda.gould@sunderland.gov.uk.
